the NANDI BEAR FANTS

BLAISE KOLODYCHUK PRESENTS:

THE NANDI BEAR TENANTS

Veltrax and his new friend Klor are back at the Nandi Bear Mansion, he is showing her the finer things on Earth, like television! Little do they know of the exciting adventures Naiad and her group of friends has been on, and how they must find the vicious Rabbit-X!

I like your television. Does it always have such entertaining things to see on it?

Not usually.. This show is good though.

Hellooo! We're home! Any ghosts here?

Hello Naiad!

Veltrax! Why the heck are you here?! How the heck did you even know about my new house?! And who is this enchanting amoeba friend of yours?

What amoeba friend?!

This may sound crazy, but we were in outer space on our way back to Earth and this giant floating head appeared, told me his name was Rick, and gave me a key to your place.

Makes sense... who's your friend?

Sorry, this is Klor, she has been on the run from giant Robots, and I told her she could stay with us.

That doesn't really seem altogether appropriate.

It's fine, this place is huge. Nice to meet you Klor.

Likewise. Thank you very much for allowing me shelter here.

Well, sorry to say, Klor, but you will be stuck here alone for a long time. Veltrax needs to come with me.. us.. to stop a super villain.

Calm down Dorriss, we are just friends. I could ask you who that handsome cat you brought home is though.

I'm Oliver, Oliver the cat. Thanks. You're handsome too.

Nice to meet you Oliver, I'm Veltrax.. And who is this horrible villain we need to defeat?

Rabbit-X, and we know almost nothing about him or where he is.

I know all about Rabbit-X and exactly where he is. I ran into him while I was running from that robot. He didn't seem so terrible when I met him.

This lady is obviously insane, as we all happen to know that Rabbit-X tried to destroy not one but TWO planets.

That does sound pretty bad.

You can not understand the motives of why people do things from so far away. Naiad, Klor, we will take care of this.. the rest of you relax here.

Are you sure you don't need our help?

Pattee is pretty capable Stensor.

I didn't mean it that way.

Yes you did.

And with that, Pattee transports them away to the location she found within Klor's mind...

Well at least that creepy blob lady is out of the house.

Dorriss, stop that, it's not like you.

You're right, I'm just being silly. Your friend seems really nice.

She's also the last one from her entire planet... all her people were destroyed by those robots we were talking about.

Oh my.. I'm sorry I was being such a cow.

It's okay. Anyway Oliver, would you like a drink?

Sure thanks! Milk please.

The three comrades appear under a tree house in a forest on the other side of the planet...

Rabbit-X, are you in there? We have the place surrounded!

What do ya want? Can't a rabbit just hide out in a tree house any more? Oh hi Klor.. Why did you bring these guys here?

Sorry Rabbit-X, but they told me about all that horrible stuff you did with the robots and Mars and all that blowing up planets shenanigans.

Oh.. That stuff.
Yeah, that was me.

So.. I can understand you wanted to blow up Mars because they imprisoned you.. But why did you want to blow up the Cat Planet?

You may as well tell us.. I have a teleport marble here that is gonna take you and your whole tree house back to the martian prison.

Well, there's this girl your see.. a girl cat, from the cat planet, and we were in love, but basically her parents wouldn't approve of her being with a rabbit.. so.. well..
everyone sucks and they should be blown up.

Oh my goodness, Rabbit-X. Not EVERYONE sucks..
just some people...
you really weren't very nice.

I guess you're right, and I guess thats why I'm gonna go back to prison.

You got that right. But don't worry.. things change, and you won't be there forever.

Thanks for the vote of confidence, you may be right.

What a strange fellow, and a strange ending.

Pattee throws the teleport marble at the tree house and it, and Rabbit X are beamed instantly back to the Martian prison...

Soon Pattee, Naiad and Klor appear back at the house.

All done.. Rabbit-X is safely behind bars again.

Excellent job everyone.. Including Klor.

Uhhh.. Thanks.

Now to decide what to do with everyone.. We have ended up with a ton of people here.

I don't know.. this house is huge.. hands up if you wanna stay with me in this giant haunted house.

Hmmmm.....

die spinne

Okay, I happen to know that Stensor, Dorriss, Pattee, AND Veltrax all have places to go to.

We can move here.. it's more fun, and it would be nice to all hang out together.

Oooh! We could convert part of this place into a shop like we always wanted to do!

It could also be a home base for all our superhero activity!

Yes Stensor, we could do things like have 'superhero' movie night, and 'superhero' yahtzee night. We would be a proper superhero club.

You superheroes. You are so lucky with your government super power pensions and stuff.. I'm lucky I'm rich now.

Me and Klor could work in your shop to help pay our way.

It all sounds excellent. What do you say, Rick the head, can they all stay?

I have discussed it with your late Auntie Nandi Bear and she says all your friends are welcome to live here.

I love it, and we can call our club 'The Nandi Bear Tenants!'

I was thinking something more like "The Danger Squad!"

No.. it's my house, I make up the name.

Fine... Nandi Bear Danger Squad.

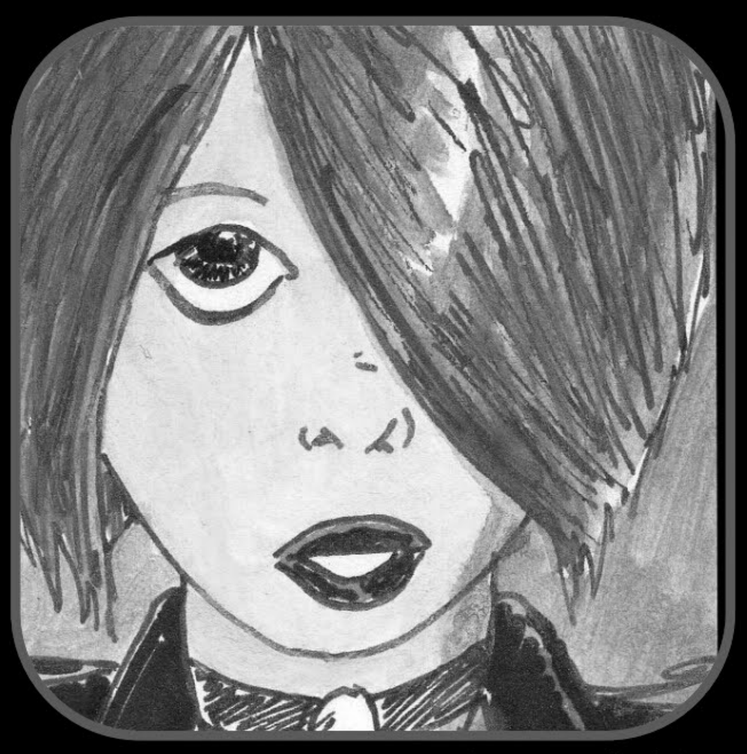
Stop it.

... it would seem as though your talents will be required once again!

Hold on everyone! I am getting a message from the other side...

TO BE CONTINUED!

THE NANDI BEAR TENANTS



Naiad Bear - Her mother was a human and her father was a bear from the peanut butter dimension, she has no known superpowers but with her strong will and her connections, as well as her famous brother Galaxy Peanutbutter Bear she has been in the centre of the superhero community for most of her life. As a teenager she ran away from home and met the villainous Super Punk, She was with him for several years and was involved in many of his crimes until she finally got away and was rescued by Stensor. Now she fights for the rights of all people.

Dorriss Doom - One of the community of human animals that emerged on Earth in the late 20th century, she was originally an acrobat who worked in a circus, and fought crime by night. However after a battle with the dreaded Super Punk, she was endowed with all his warlock powers, giving her supernatural abilities. The full extent of her powers is unknown...

Pattee - Originally from the Cat planet, pattee is perhaps the most powerful psychic cat in the galaxy. She studied for years in the mystic cat mountains of Abacatdabra. She eventually came to Earth and joined multiple superhero group in hopes that she could open people's minds to the infinite possibilities of the universe.

Veltrax - A Wolvcha from the legendary planet Wolvcha, he has been making his own way through the galaxy for as long as he can remember, a self proclaimed adventurer who will do the right thing, whether it s legal or not. Working along side most of Earth's heroes, he has become very close to Dorriss over the years and was there to help her during her transformation into a warlock cat.

Rick the Head - Big giant green luminescent decapitated ghost head. In life he was called Frederic. He was an 18th century barber who lost his head in the French Revolution.

Klor - The last of her species from the planet of the Giant Amoebas. She was originally a librarian, and has knowledge of most of the galaxy's literature. When the Zeviakernous robots ravaged and destroyed her entire planet, she was one of a group of Amoebas who were trying to find a way to destroy them. She was performing tests on a secluded moon when the Zeviakernous robots finished off destroying the whole planet, she was on the run ever since. She has no superpowers, but as a Giant Amoeba she can transform into any shape she wants. Though she prefers her natural form.

Stensor - As a boy he was used as a test subject in his mother's disturbing magical chemistry experiments, eventually giving him super strength, and the ability to fly. He ran away at a young age and was taken in by a wandering group of gypsies. This is where he met his future nemesis Super Punk. They grew up as brothers, but had vastly different views on morality, and when he had a chance he left the gypsies and became one of the world's greatest superheroes. One day while trying to stop an evil terrorist from destroying the Eiffel tower, the left side of his face was blown up. His eye was replaced with a futuristic electronic device that can project laser beams, see through walls and perform instant chemical analysis.

Oliver - The handsome lead reporter for the Cat Planet's premier newspaper, The Daily Cat Box. He had friends in high places and the fame, fortune and loneliness that comes with his high profile life. All he ever wanted was to have a group of friends and a life where he was judged on who he really is, not on his power and money. When the chance to leave the cat planet came he took it, and didn't look back.

Forclune - The mysterious armed snake from another dimension, he lives high above Earth in a satellite that orbits the planet. He is friend to Pattee, Stensor and all their friends, helping them whenever they need it with his high tech equipment and spaceships. He was fighting the eternal war many years ago in his own universe when Stensor and Veltrax accidentally opened up a portal that brought him to our galaxy. Using his superior knowledge and skills, over the years he has built a gateway between the two universes, he was always opposed to the war, and prefers the milky way, only using his portal to get equipment and resources.
